

Friends of the Greenville Library

Greenville, NY 12083

How do the Friends of the Library Help?

- Sponsor programs, including free concerts at the Gazebo, to enlighten and entertain adults, teens and children
- Host events, book clubs, outings and presentations, to foster literacy, learning and a shared sense of community
- Raise money to purchase equipment and materials which may not otherwise be available through current funding

What do the Friends of the Library Receive?

- The satisfaction of participating in the library's continuing growth and improvement
- Join in rewarding and fun activities with other Friends
- The chance to work for our community's improvement and to enhance the quality of life for our neighbors

Become a Friend and Support the Greenville Library

A donation to the Friends of the Greenville Library supports our library throughout the year including summer programs for children and adults, educational and fun events and improvements to our library.

With your tax deductible donation, we can continue to enhance the services that the Library provides for our community.
