

Friends of the Greenville Library

Greenville, NY 12083

How do the Friends of the Library Help?

- Sponsoring programs to enlighten and entertain including summer programs enjoyed by seniors, other adults, teens and tots
- Hosting events, book clubs, outings and presentations to foster literacy, learning and a shared sense of community
- Raising money to purchase equipment and materials which may not otherwise be available through current funding
- Providing a valuable pool of talent to assist the library in offering more to the community

What do the Friends of the Library Receive?

- The satisfaction of participating in the library's continuing growth and improvement
- Join in rewarding and fun activities with other Friends
- The chance to work for our community's improvement and to enhance the quality of life for our neighbors
